Law Enforcement Officer Visit

Cub Scouts, working on almost all rank advancement, have a need to visit with a law enforcement officer. Rather than go on a field trip to a police station, it may be best for your pack to have an officer come and visit them. However, use your best judgment and flexibility to meet the needs of the Cub Scouts (as well as the schedule of law enforcement officers) in your community.

As you invite law enforcement (at whatever level) to your den or pack meeting, the following are all items that could be covered as he or she talks to the Cub Scouts –

-When are appropriate situations to call 911? (when is it not appropriate to call 911?)

-What is it like to serve in the community?

-What are the best ways to help family stay safe at home and in the neighborhood?

-What are some issues facing our community?

- -How can citizens help law enforcement officers?
- -Why is it important to obey the law?

-Do you know how to do CPR? Is it hard? What training did you receive to do that?

The Wolf den has the requirement to write the officer a thank you note (currently scheduled for the week after this visit as part of the Gathering activity).

This is scheduled for Week 3, but can be done whenever the officer's schedule allows it. Feel free to swap Week 3 for Week 4 or other weeks if needed.
